Miss Me
...But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road,
and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me...but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take,
and each must go alone.
It is all part of the Master's plan,
a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
go to a friend we know...
and bury your sorrow in doing good deeds,
Miss me...but let me go.

Acknowledgment

The family wishes to express sincere thanks and appreciation for the many expressions of comfort and love during the illness and passing of our loved one. Thanks also to the staff of UT Medical Center of Knoxville, TN and Kindred Nursing Home of Chattanooga, TN for all of their dedication and care that was shown to Adrienne during her stay at these facilities. A special thank you is made to Adrienne's co-workers of Power Systems, Inc. Also a special thank you to the Jewelry Television family.

Reflections and Memories of a Life Well Lived

Adrienne Celeste Watson was born to the union of William Earl and Bernice Smith Watson on December 4, 1975 in Knoxville, Tennessee. Adrienne's name was called by the Captain of that great old ship on Sunday morning June 26, 2011 at 11:46 A.M.

Our Lord knew that she was tired and saw fit for her to come unto Him for peace and everlasting rest. Adrienne will forever be loved and missed by all she had to leave behind, but she won't be lonely.

She will be greeted by God and all of the heavenly angels; her father, William Earl Watson; two grandmothers, Frances Watson and Virginia Sanders; two great-grandmothers, Clora Watson and Rosa Smith that she was blessed to see here on earth to welcome her into God's kingdom.

Adrienne was employed by Power Systems, Inc. She was a former employee of Comcast Cable Company.

Adrienne's beautiful smile and personality will sorely be missed by all who loved and knew her. We know that she is in a happier place and she will always be smiling and looking down on us.

Adrienne is survived by three children whom she loved very much, DaSheena, DeAngelo and Delece Watson; one grandson who was equally adored, DaShaun Watson; best friend, a very devoted loving and caring mother, Bernice Watson; loving sister, Shawntell (Raymond) Stewart; two nieces, Inara and Melody Stewart all of Stone Mountain, GA; aunts, Ruby Hall and Kathy Watson; uncles, Ernest Watson, Norman (Margie) Smith all of Knoxville, TN, John Watson of Lorsh, Germany and Fred (Loretta) Watson, Jacksonville, FL; great-aunt, Lillian Mitchell; special cousins, Paul Hall, Monica Smith and Arneshia Bradley all of Knoxville, TN; a host of other family and friends.
